Day 3: MARRAKECH CULTURAL AND HISTORICAL TOUR

You will experience one of the most unique sensations through the hot air-balloon flight. The magic starts with the impressive show of the preparation of the balloon. By leaving the ground, enjoy a breathtaking view of the most beautiful sites of our country.

From the Atlas Mountains to the small Berber Villages, appreciate an hour of pure emotion that will leave you speechless.

After your landing on the ground, although your mind is still in the clouds, prolong the pleasure with a reception under the caidal tent for a typical Berber breakfast prepared by the women of the Douar (Village) of Oulad El Garn.

Back to Marrakech and meeting your guide to start the visit of the Pearl of the South.
Your tour of the day will include the Koutoubia, Bahia Palace & Medresa Moulay Youssef (religious school) & Dar Si Said Museum.
These monuments are not just attractions but each holds a specific history of a period that is still building the fame of Marrakech nowadays.
During the visit of the Koutoubia, you will explore Lala Hasna Park.
Last but not least, Jemaa El Fna square. It is the heart of Marrakesh and the busiest as it is known but it is more interesting in the late afternoon after the tour of the various souks.
Back to your hotel at the end of the tour for overnight.

Day 4: MARRAKECH

you will explore Bab Agnaou with entrances to Saadian Tombs and El Badi Palace with tour of the Medina. But before, you will explore Menara Gardens.

Dating back to the Almohad dynasty, it is located a short distance from the Wall of Marrakech. It is registered UNESCO World Heritage Site since 1985.

It is said that “The Incomparable” (El Badii) was a palace with over 300 rooms decorated in gold, turquoise and crystal. Today you will have more window to this grand palace.

As for the Saadian Tombs, this site dates back to the end of the sixteenth century designed by Ahmad al-Mansur and are located in a closed garden, which visitors can access through a small passageway.

Transfer back to hotel at the end of the tour.

Day 5: DEPARTURE FROM MARRAKECH

After breakfast, transfer to the Marrakesh Menara airport.

You will be pampered throughout the journey with a refreshing selection of mineral water, delicious fruit juices, and tasty confectionery. Relax and enjoy this indulgent journey!
